YOUR GUIDE TO THIS WEEKEND'S ENTERTAINMENT

Party with a difference at the Arty Party, hit the beach for a carnival or just take it easy by picking up a new hobby.

ARTY PARTY

The Arts Belt at Waterloo Street throws an Arty Party on Saturday with performances by the Singapore Dance Theatre, the Kathakali dancers from the Bhaskar's Art Academy, the Chinese Opera Institute, and Jack and Rai from popular local pop-rock outfit EIC. There will also be a finale musical starring Olivia (left) and Koh Chieng Mun.

Waterloo Street (Arts Belt), Saturday, with show times at 11am, 1pm, 3pm and 5pm. The Arty Party Finale Musical is at 7.30pm. Free admission.

FLORAL DESIGN WORKSHOP

Create your own floral arrangement under the guidance of internationally renowned floral designer Damien Koh on Saturday. His two workshops are being hosted by the National Museum of Singapore in conjunction with the Active Ageing Festival and Senior Citizen's Week.

Workshops are conducted in Mandarin and limited to a maximum of 50 participants per session.

The Salon at the National Museum of Singapore, Saturday from 11am to 12.30pm and from 2pm to 3.30pm. Tickets $15, free for senior citizens. Pre-registration is required, call 6332 3659 or 6332 0111 or log on to www.nationalmuseum.sg to register.

NEBO BEACH CARNIVAL

Siloso Beach at Sentosa comes alive on Sunday with a beach carnival organised by NTUC's youth club, Nebo. Besides sports such as beach football and beach volleyball, there are also live performances by local bands The Great Spy Experiment, Ivy's Vendetta and The Sexies.

And for some eye candy, check out the Nebo Beach Hunks and Babes competition.

There will be welcome gifts for those between 12 and 21 years of age who become members of the Nebo club. Existing members will receive a goody bag (while stocks last).

Siloso Beach, Sunday from 9am to 6pm. Free admission to the carnival but Sentosa entrance fee applies.

SUNDAY HIGHLIGHTS

UBAH UNIK 2

Suria, 8.30pm
Imagine having four sons with different personalities and interests, and only two rooms to share among themselves. How does one begin to cater to their individual needs? This episode shows us how two bed-rooms undergo an extreme makeover with space management put into place, without neglecting a growing child's needs.

MICA (P) 273/06/2007

YOUR WEEKLY GUIDE TO THE ARTS (NOV 24-30)

SHANGHAI NIGHT

The Singapore Chinese Orchestra invites the audience on a "journey" to the Chinese city in this one-night-only concert featuring a number of Chinese classics. Shanghainese musicians - Li Jing Xia on the pipa, Zhang Nian Bing on the guqin, and Shen Qin on the erhu - will join the orchestra in the performance of tunes such as The Fantasia of Maiden Mo Chou and Five Golden Flowers. Guest conductor Zhang Guo Yong conducts. Date: Saturday Time: 8pm Venue: Singapore Conference Hall Price: $11, $16, $25, $30, $35 Enquiries: www.sistic.com.sg

A CLASSICAL AFFAIR

The Rave Harpers, a group of young harpists led by award-winning musician Katryna Tan, returns with more classical music to put you in the mood for Christmas. Works selected for this performance include The Nutcracker Suite by Tchaikovsky and I've Got Rhythm by Gershwin. Date: Sunday Time: 7.30pm Venue: Esplanade Recital Studio Price: $15 Enquiries: www.sistic.com.sg

THE GOOD PERSON OF SICHUAN

Catch this modern interpretation of Bertolt Brecht's play about secret identities and capitalism. Shen Te, a prostitute who's about to be evicted from her town, is conferred the title of Good Person of Sichuan. She is richly rewarded for her kindness. But is this change in fortune for the better? The play will be performed by students pursuing the Bachelor of Arts in Acting at LASALLE College of the Arts. Date: Sunday to Dec 1 Time: 2pm (Dec 1); 8pm Venue: Drama Centre Black Box Price: $20; $15 (
